Keep the sofa. Refresh the room.

A living room refresh under $1,500 in décor

Peacock teal	Warm brass	Walnut	Sand	Oatmeal

What stays

The oatmeal sofa and existing coffee table stay. The sample assumes a 12 × 14 ft room and an 84 in sofa. Measurements are illustrative.

Two changes that do the work

1. Anchor the sofa with a textured rug. Run the long side parallel to the sofa and bring the front legs onto the rug. Tape out the footprint and check door swings and walking paths before buying.

2. Give the seating area its own light. Place a shaded brass lamp by a sofa arm near an outlet. Use a warm 2700 K bulb and route the cord outside the walkway.

Buy first / $254.96

Natural flatwoven rug — $139.99
6 ft 7 in × 9 ft 10 in
Runs lengthwise with the sofa and ties the seating together.

Non-slip rug underlay — $19.99
6 ft 3 in × 9 ft 2 in
Fits inside the rug edge. Check compatibility with your floor finish.

Brass floor lamp — $89.99
61 in high, 11 in base, 14 in shade
Adds light beside the sofa and echoes the warm gold accents.

Warm-white E26 LEDs — $4.99
2 in diameter × 4 in high, 2-pack
A soft 2700 K light brings warmth to the seating corner.

Can wait / $67.96

Teal velvet cushion cover — $9.99
20 × 20 in
Adds a deep jewel tone to the existing oatmeal sofa.

Gold textured cushion cover — $9.99
20 × 20 in
Repeats the lamp’s warmth with a softer texture.

White cushion inserts — 2 × $9.00 = $18.00
20 × 20 in each
Fits both covers. Reuse inserts you already own if they fit.

Warm beige throw — $9.99
47 × 63 in
Softens the sofa arm and repeats the sand tones in the rug.

Round black tray table — $19.99
17½ in diameter × 20⅝ in high
Gives one seat a place for a drink without adding visual bulk.

Backups: Cream 8 × 10 ft rug, $180.00, if the room has space for the wider footprint. Recheck the underlay size. Nickel floor lamp with white shade, 60 in high, 11 in base, 17 in shade, $64.99, for the same soft light in a cooler finish.
